1. READING ENGAGEMENT

Ask the student to bring his or her completed Student Reading Survey to the conference.

2. ORAL READING FLUENCY

INTRODUCTION

T: In this story, All the Way Under, Sonya and her cousin, Katie, spend a day at the beach. Please read aloud to the star on page 2. Show the student where to stop reading at the *.

RECORD OF ORAL READING

Record the student’s oral reading behaviors. Note the student’s fluency (expression and phrasing). Be sure to time the student’s reading.

Page 2

I didn’t plan to tell a lie or to get into trouble. It just sort of happened. Katie, my cousin, had asked me to stay with her family for a week during the summer. Katie and I were both nine. We were going into fourth grade in the fall. We both enjoyed riding bikes, playing games, and dancing to our favorite music. For the first few days, we had a wonderful time. But that all changed when Uncle Jack decided that he would take us to the beach on his day off.

I tried to act happy about going to the beach. It was my first time. I should have been excited. But I didn’t want Katie to know I hadn’t learned to swim yet.

“You can swim, can’t you?” Uncle Jack asked as he turned into the beach parking lot the next day.
“Uh-huh,” I nodded. It wasn’t really a lie. I had started taking swimming lessons three times, but I never finished. The real problem was that I was afraid to go all the way under. Just thinking about putting my head in the water made me very nervous.

As soon as Uncle Jack parked the car, Katie jumped out of the back seat. She was ready to go swimming. Uncle Jack and Aunt Lisa grabbed the beach towels and umbrella and started looking for a good spot to enjoy the sun. I, on the other hand, stepped out of the car slowly. I had to come up with a plan of action.

ORAL READING WORDS PER MINUTE, PERCENT OF ACCURACY
Use the student’s oral reading time to circle the WPM range.

Word Count: 255

3. COMPREHENSION

PREDICTION
Students do not use the text when making their predictions.

T: Follow the directions on the first page of your Student Booklet. After you have finished your predictions, come to me (or raise your hand).

Note: For students who have an Individual Education Plan in place for reading and/or written communication, follow the directions in their plan. You may read aloud the prompts in the Student Booklet and/or scribe their responses if required. Give no additional prompts.
While the student completes the Prediction page, complete the Teacher Analysis of Oral Reading below and circle the descriptors on the DRA2 Continuum that best describe the student’s oral reading fluency.

Note: After the student has completed the Prediction page, continue with the assessment if time permits. Otherwise, have the student read the book and complete the Student Booklet at another time.

STUDENT READS AND RESPONDS
All students may use the text to complete pages 2–4 of the Student Booklet.

T: Read the story. When you are finished, write a summary of what you have read and answer the remaining questions in the Student Booklet. If you have questions, please come to me (or raise your hand).

Oral Reading Rate: (Optional) Use the formula below to determine the student’s exact oral reading rate. Convert the student’s reading time to all seconds.

255 \text{ (words)} \div \text{ ______ total seconds} = \text{ ______ WPS} \times 60 = \text{ ______ WPM}

DRA2 Continuum
- Use the information from the Student Reading Survey and the Student Booklet to circle the descriptors that best describe the student’s responses.
- Add the circled numbers to obtain a total score for each section.
- Record the scores at the top of page 1. Record the Comprehension score at the top of page 4 after the colon.

Note: If the Comprehension score is less than 12, administer DRA2 with a lower level text.

Choose three to five teaching/learning activities on the DRA2 Focus for Instruction on the next page.
DRA2 FOCUS FOR INSTRUCTION

READING ENGAGEMENT

Wide Reading
- Teach student strategies to select appropriately leveled texts for independent reading
- Introduce student to reading materials from a variety of genres and purposes
- Teach strategies to build reading stamina
- Create structures and/or routines to support reading at home
- Develop and monitor clear expectations for amount of independent reading
- Teach student how to use a reading log to monitor book selection and set reading goals

Self-Assessment/Goal Setting
- Model and discuss strategies good readers use
- Help student identify 1–2 reading goals and a plan of action to improve reading
- Support revision of ongoing reading goals

ORAL READING FLUENCY

Expression and Phrasing
- Model and teach reading in longer, meaningful phrases with appropriate expression
- Have student practice appropriate expression with familiar texts
- Have student participate in choral reading and/or reader’s theater
- Teach student to heed punctuation

Rate
- Provide materials and time for repeated readings and timed readings to increase reading rate
- Give opportunities for students to read lower level and/or familiar texts at an appropriate rate

Accuracy: Word Analysis
- Support and reinforce self-corrections of miscues
- Model and support how to take words apart (e.g., onset and rime, syllables) to problem-solve unknown words
- Teach how to use word chunks and analogies to problem-solve unknown words
- Provide spelling activities and word sorts to help student recognize patterns in words

COMPREHENSION

Questioning/Prediction
- Provide opportunities for student to discuss what he or she knows about the characters and setting based on title and book cover, as well as opening paragraphs and illustrations of texts read aloud
- Teach how to make and confirm predictions prior to and during reading
- Model and support using background information to make meaningful predictions
- Model and support using knowledge of text structures/genre characteristics to make predictions

Summary
- Share and identify characteristics of good summaries
- Model and co-construct written summaries of texts read aloud
- Model and support how to distinguish between more important and less important ideas and details
- Model and support how to write a summary in one’s own words
- Teach student how to use a graphic organizer as an aid to creating a summary
- Teach student how to identify story elements (e.g., characters, setting, plot)
- Provide time for student to practice oral and written summaries

Literal Comprehension
- Show student how to use key words to identify specific information from the text
- Provide opportunities for student to answer and construct literal questions
- Help student locate and record specific details
- Teach student how to use and construct graphic organizers to keep track of story information

Interpretation
- Teach and share examples of inferences
- Model and support how to identify important text implications
- Provide opportunities for student to support inferences with examples from the text
- Give student opportunities to respond to and construct inference questions orally and in writing

Reflection
- Help student identify important information and/or key vocabulary in a variety of texts
- Provide opportunities to identify and discuss a significant message or event in a story
- Provide opportunities to discuss theme/most important idea of stories read aloud
- Demonstrate and teach student how to support opinion with details from the text

Metacognitive Awareness
- Model and teach comprehension strategies for fiction texts
- Provide opportunities for student to practice using a specific comprehension strategy (e.g., making connections, visualizing, responding emotionally)
- Help student identify examples in a text where he or she used a specific strategy
